

16 KLANSMEN HELD BY COURT IN RIOT AND DEADLY SHOOTING

Continued from First Page.

terested persons extended a considerable distance down the street.

A clash between Attorney Spill and Lieutenant Beupre was narrowly averted when the state patrolman informed the court the government had no intention against the four alleged anti-klansmen, who were also charged with assault with intent to kill.

"In my wide experience dealing with Klansmen," Spill stated, "I have always noticed that no change were ever placed against entry and prosecution of them in a local court seems difficult."

Lieutenant Beupre was evidently about to make some remark, but thought better of it and said nothing.

In the meantime anxious relatives and friends were besieging the Framingham Hospital, where Foley and Thomas Slattery, also of Roxbury, are confined.

Foley shot through the left temple with a bullet, in a serious condition, with his name on the danger list, while Slattery has two facial wounds.

William Bradley and Edmund

Purcell of Framingham and Francis Maguire of Roxbury were able to get home after their wounds were dressed.

Bradley's back was grazed by a bullet, Purcell lost the top of his ear and Maguire received a facial wound.

The riot, one of the most serious Klan disorders ever to occur in New England, started when a crowd of hostile spectators, gathered outside a field on the Libbey farm, hurled a few stones and missiles at a group of about one hundred Klansmen holding their fifth meeting in as many weeks.

Suddenly from out the darkness of the night the answer came in a sharp report from a machine near the Libbey domicile. Almost simultaneously five other reports were heard, and the gathering on the road was swept by bullets.

Panics ensued among the crowd of outsiders in the road during the Libbey estate. The crowd broke out and ran for cover, leaving five wounded men lying in the roadway.

Arrival of 25 state constabulary from barracks at Framingham, Holden, Concord and North Reading prevented the crowd from taking vengeance on the Klansmen.

The troopers arrested 16 men and seized firearms, including axes and other implements in a search of the Libbey estate.

According to Chief of Police James Hall at Sudbury the Klansmen first fired into the crowd which surrounded the gathering of unruly Klansmen on the Kim Road, situated on the old Connecticut road between Sudbury and Sudbury.

Chief Hall was on the scene when the Klansmen fired a volley into the house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along the road fronting the Klan field.

There was no disturbance until 11 o'clock. Then groups from the assembled crowds outside the grounds drew the attention of the Klan guards and two were seen to approach the central body grouped in the field.

These returned to their motor. They were greeted with a salvo of flames and muttered curses.

Quiet reigned again for few minutes.

At 11 o'clock was sounded on the bell of a distant church, six men were seen to leave the very heart of the Klan gathering.

They walked slowly to a chicken-coop in the rear of the Libbey house. Suddenly the deep boom of shot guns rent the night air. The volley came from the direction of the Libbey outposts.

A veritable hail of buckshot poured into the assemblage of men and motor cars in the road outside the boundaries of the Libbey estate.

"My God, I'm shot!" a voice cried out in the darkness.

It was Alphonse Foley, a Roxbury man who was standing on the front of the car on the outer fringe of the roadside crowd.

Foley staggered and fell into the arms of friends. Blood trickled down from a wound in his left temple. Bradley also toppled and fell to the ground. The crowd dispersed for a moment, then reassembled.

RUSHED TO HOSPITAL.

The wounded were placed in automobiles and rushed to the office of Dr. C. J. Carr, about a mile away, in Framingham. Most of the crowd followed in automobiles and attracted a large car, which was the last seen of the Klan.

All gathered about Dr. Carr's home.

When the physician saw Foley's wounds he immediately summoned the Rev. John A. McLaughlin, pastor of George's Church, Framingham. Father McLaughlin hastened to the Carr home to administer the last rites of the Catholic church to the unconscious man.

By that time hundreds had gathered outside. While Father McLaughlin was administering the sacrament, every member of the crowd which included men, women and children, knelt on the lawn and in the roadway.

The wounded men were hurried to the Framingham Hospital.

Meanwhile at the Libbey farm automobiles headlights and windshields were shattered. There was a grinding roar as motorists started their cars and prepared to escape from the scene.

Many drivers of cars refused to leave. They shouted defiance to the Klansmen. Loud cries of "vengeance" rose. In the dimly lighted road a swirling mass of shouting, gestulating men milled about in confusion.

The mob acted bravely, but still no shots were returned in the direction of the Libbey farmhouse where came the buckshot barrage.

There was a conference of cool heads. A small group ran to nearby houses to summon the authorities.

Chief William Holbrook of Framingham, a man universally liked throughout the countryside, was asked to speed to the scene. He leaped into his machine and sped to the Libbey place. In a twinkling he realized the dangerous situation prevailing.

FLEADS WITH CROWD.

Mounting a fence he pleaded that the crowd disperse.

But men had been shot down and the mob was in mood to kill with the scene. Chief Holbrook continued his efforts to break up the crowd until the arrival of massive reinforcements from Roxbury and other communities arrived, following Lieutenant Kenneth T. Beupre and a squad of state constabulary from Framingham barracks.

Even then, the forces of law and order were not sufficient to warrant an attempt to rout the crowd.

The police officials feared that great bloodshed would result if the constabulary and few police officers charged the crowd.

Chief Holbrook dashed to the nearest telephone and summoned help from the Concord, Holden and North Reading barracks of the state patrol.

Within a short time, over the road approaching East Sudbury, the groups of the patrol moved through the night on swiftly moving motorcycles.

As soon as they reached the Libbey house, the constabulary and police officers were ordered the arrest of every man in sight.

The crowd outside the Libbey grounds dispersed in order when the reinforcements arrived.

Breaching into the Libbey grounds the state officers rounded up alleged members of the Klan.

As fast as they were seized they were rushed in motor trucks to the Framingham police station.

Other officers were detailed to search for weapons.

16 ARRESTED.

In a motor car, the state police seized here a replica in the name of a son of Chief of Police and Sheriff of Sudbury, which was found. Three rifles, a number of ammunition belts, a revolver, a quantity of iron pipe and other heavy metal, an axe and several clubs and blowguns were also found by the men of the patrol in the search of the Libbey house, outposts and adjacent land.

Hidden in a barn on the estate they found twenty-two men alleged to be Klansmen in a field outside house on the same road a few nights ago.

It was agreed among the members of the hooded order that they would further chase throwing last night the Klansmen would punish the guilty person.

Chief Hall stated that he knew that if more cars had dropped on the roadside opposite the Libbey field the shooting might have been from 150 to 200 persons on foot had gathered also along

Has Boston a Heart? Read This Girl's Story

FADS ONLY 'THE FEAR' GET SEATS IN CARS

'Jerry, the Job Hunter,' Discovers 'Clothes Make the Lady'

First Day's Score

HEARTS 6
The Hobo, street car conductor, the employment woman who released the taxi driver, Bridget and Vivian.

NO HEARTS 6
At least four riders in a subway car, the girl who turned her away, the employment woman.

(In the first installment of her job-seeking adventures, 'Jerry, the Job Hunter' told of her start in the Boston Commons, her send-off by 'The Bum' and her departure for the employment agencies. Today she will reveal her experiences on the first day of her search for work.)

SETTING sail in the subway
on my first job-hunting expedition, I gained my first insight on the subject: 'Clothes may make the lady, but they also make the gentleman.'

Seats were offered to ladies to the right of me, seats were offered to ladies on the left of me, but Jerry the Job Hunter rode on in strong hanging episode to the end of his destination. I noted this and collected data on my trolley car and subway hours and came out with a fat-fouled rule on subway gallantry: "Only the fair and what they wear get the seats." An elderly person being the only exception.

Conductor a Friend

I was seated out of the way, asked to move into the corner, to change seats so that a "friend" could occupy mine, and when a roving subway car conductor came out with a fat-fouled rule on subway gallantry: "Only the fair and what they wear get the seats." An elderly person being the only exception.

A Disappointment

When I appeared and received the woman's stern frown, I was out of work without payment of a fee.

I voiced a little plea, saying that I had not a cent to spare, but that I would pay her the fee out of my first week's salary if I got the job. The woman, however, evidently my clothes did not promise handsome wealth, and she said she could give me a job at a mother's helper. I gave her my Broadway street address, and went out to a home on Blue Hill avenue.

A mail answered my ring and when I asked for Mrs. B. she hailed me and asked me if I had been sent out for the job by the L. agency. Admitting that I had, she said she would give me the job, but she would stop sending girls there. The job had been filled and Mrs. B. had notified the agency.

That was that. Jobs could be filled and agencies were not always reliable middlemen.

Taxi-Man Aids

I turned over my agency "ads" and elected a Roxbury taxi driver, who was especially advertised for "green girls." That was my color, I decided, and straightaway set forth, or rather hailed forth.

I had stopped to ask the way from a taxi-driver, and when I started out he yelled after me: "That's not the way—stop at the corner for the cab."

"Yes, but I'm going to walk," I told him.

His jaw dropped. "Do you know how far I'll be asked," "What's the matter, haven't you got any money?"

"No," I told him mournfully. "I've got to walk."

"Say," he said, "Your boots will wear out before you get there. Stop and let me give you a ride."

With which I arrived in state, although without the kind-hearted taxi-driver to stop below the ad-street.

Advice From Girls

This employment agency was run on a larger, more systematic scale. As soon as I approached the manager's desk, I was waved into a waiting room lined with wooden benches.

If you find a misstatement or error in any edition of the Boston Evening American, please notify Managing Editor, Liberty 4000.

"Jerry" on Her First Day's Hunt for Work

"GIVE NO WORK WITHOUT RHYTHM OF A FEET"

POLICE BREAK WITH O'BRIEN LOOMS

Charges of "politics" by Police Commissioner Herbert A. Wilson in connection with the declaration by Daniel A. O'Brien that he is "unable to clean up Boston" have with the present police department heads and investigators.

Deeka Vanishes; Takes 2 Pups With Him

Ludlow, Vt., Aug. 11.—Deeka, famous pup dog that trailed Earl Woodward through the woods of Vermont a few months ago, is lost. He strayed away from the Big Mountain Kennel, taking two pups with him, and no trace has been found of him.

STATE LEGION TO ELECT AT SEPTEMBER MEETING

Important matters are to come before the seventh annual convention of the American Legion, which will open in Ford Hall Thursday morning, September 10, lasting three days.

KLAN MAY PARADE IN HUB NEXT YEAR

Washington, Aug. 11.—Boston as the place for holding the Klan assembly figures prominently in the Washington group of the Klan's future activities. An apparently authentic report is that the Klansmen intend to make it an annual affair and are considering New York and Boston as alternate cities for the 1924 "demonstration."

REVENUE CUTTER PULLS OFF STRANDED SCHOONER

Bahadur, Lieut. Aug. 11 (A.P.).—The three-masted sailing schooner Orton A. Smith of Portland, Me., which went aground in a fog two miles off the coast of the Maine coast guard station, Cape Cod, was pulled off by the cutter Grebe.

BOSTON EVENING AMERICAN

A HOME PAPER FOR THE PEOPLE WHO THINK
BOSTON, TUESDAY, AUGUST 11, 1923

FIRE HERO MEDALS AWARDED Crowd Weeps as Pastor Prays in Road by Dying Child

"HOP IN AND I'LL GIVE YOU A RIDE"

"STRIKE HIM, FOR BIG PAY"

NAHANT HOLDS UP ACTION ON 3-DECKERS

Three-deckers are quite an issue down in Nahant at present. Action on a petition asking permission for their erection has been postponed following one of the largest town meetings ever held there.

FRIGATE'S ORIGINAL NAME RESTORED

Orders have been received by Rear Adm. L. R. DeLoach from Secretary of the Navy Wilbur restoring the original name of the United States frigate Constitution. Up to now "Old Ironsides" has been officially known as the U. S. Old Constitution.

C. T. A. CONVENES IN PITTSFIELD TODAY

Pittsfield, Aug. 11.—Three hundred delegates from various parts of the country arrived here for the 54th Total Abolition Union of America, to be held at the Father Mathew building today and tomorrow.

POLICE CAPTURE THIEF SUSPECT IN CELLAR

Finishing all beams of escape blocked by the police, Philip Norwood, 18, of No. 11 Norwood street, Everett, surrendered to a detail from the West Roxbury station which had been summoned to the home of Mortimer F. Sullivan, No. 11 Norwood street, Forest Hills, by neighbors.

L' Passenger Dies

Suddenly taken ill while riding on an elevated train, Edward Dexter, fifty-nine, of No. 18 Columbia park, Mattapan, was removed to the City Hospital, but was pronounced dead upon arrival. Death was due to natural causes.

SEEK DATA ON FIRE MEDALS

Commissioner Glynn Names Board to Decide on Hero Awards

Presentation of the first of the Boston Evening American's "daring deeds" to a hero member of the Boston Fire Department, drew a big throng today when Fire Commissioner Theodore A. Glynn called upon the departmental Board of Merit for facts to place before this newspaper's Committee of Award.

Members of the Board of Merit said their report will be ready within a day or two.

As has been true of every fire department board and committee since Mr. Glynn became Fire Commissioner, the Board of Merit is made up of representatives of all ranks in the department, as follows: Deputy Chief Henry J. Powers, Division 1; District Chief Michael Teshan, Division 6; Captain Charles Farren, Ladder 1; Lieutenant Roger T. White, Engine 6.

Private James E. Tracy, Ladder 1, The Board of Merit gets its facts by continuous acts of bravery or self-sacrifice from commanding officers throughout the department. The subject of many such reports in the past six months has been the spirit which has led some of Boston's finest firemen to join their companies on their days off, or at other times when they were not really on duty.

The well known citizens who will act in the matter of the award for the Boston Evening American and its readers are the Hon. Joseph P. Manning, of J. P. Manning & Co., wholesale tobacconist, president of the board of trustees of the City Hall; Rev. Dr. James M. Mahoney, pastor of Tremont Temple and one of the most famous preachers in America; William G. Pratt, Esq., prominent attorney and former national president of the American Amateur Athletic Union; former Representative Alfred Treadwell, lately president of the Boston Board of Fire Underwriters, and Fire Commissioner Glynn, ex-officio.

The Boston Evening American's "Daring Deeds" medal is to be presented semi-annually to that member of the Fire Department who in the previous six months has most distinguished himself for bravery.

BOY FALLS TWO STORIES, CAUGHT BY PASSERBY

New York, Aug. 11.—Little "Moe" Klein, two years old, leaped out of the window of his home on the third floor of No. 111 Alder street, lost his balance and fell out.

A man who was passing happened to be on the street and reached out his arms, in which Moe landed yelping. That was all that was the matter with him.

Flower Seller Proves Asylum Inmate

Saratoga Lake, N. Y., Aug. 11 (A.P.).—Police were notified that a man arrested here Saturday, charged with selling flowers taken from a church, is Edward J. Kearney of Bridgeport, Ct., who escaped from an insane asylum at Middletown, Ct. After taking the flowers from St. Bernard's Roman Catholic Church, police said Kearney stood in the public square offering them for sale at trifling sums. Kearney is being held pending investigation of his recent activities.

Police Prevent Lynching

Rochester, N. Y., Aug. 11.—Fifty policemen, armed with riot guns, were rushed to Memorial Hospital today to prevent threatened lynching of Polly Francis, negro, charged with killing Louis Betts, a detective sergeant.

Killed by Train

Providence, Aug. 11.—Daniel Denko, thirty-seven, of No. 43 Orma street, was instantly killed when he was struck by a train while walking along the railroad tracks near the Cross-street crossing.

GIRL, 8, RUN DOWN BY TRUCK IN QUINCY

Quincy, Aug. 11.—An Eunice Murray, 5 years old, lay dying in Walnut street after she had been hit by a motor truck near her home, an unidentified clergyman said a prayer as the child's life ebbed away, while a silent crowd looked on with heads bowed and eyes dimmed with tears.

Some had left her home at No. 51 Walnut street to buy some tea even as a part of the celebration of the birthday of her brother, Robert, aged eleven.

As the child crossed the street she failed to notice a truck driven by George Miller of No. 175 Walnut street, Milwauke.

Miller made frantic efforts to stop the truck but without avail.

Robert, his eleven-year-old brother, was sitting in the back seat of the truck when it struck the child.

Eunice was flown so long saw what had happened and rushed back to tell his mother.

The mother is in a virtual state of collapse.

Melver was not held by the police.

—Men!—have you visited our new department selling Hudson-Essex Cars and accessories? It's open evenings until 9 o'clock.

—sizes for regular size men! —plenty of sizes for over-size men!

Athletic Union Suits

—fancy madras $1.00 —rayon stripe soiesettes pebble weave —and others madras

Sizes from 34 to 52—that means that the large man can join in the savings this event offers. Every suit cut full and correctly—no bunching and loose flapping, but the trim, comfortable fit that is found in underwear that bears the "Roxford" label. Cool, durable and fine appearing materials complete a union suit you'd consider a real buy at a price much higher than this.

GILCHRIST CO.

Legal stamps given and redeemed

FIND BODY OF DEAD BEAUTY'S DANCE ESCORT IN PINE ISLAND POND

DISCOVERY OF REMAINS ADDS TO MYSTERY IN TRAGEDY

DEATH CASE VICTIM AND POLICE DRAGGING POND FOR ESCORT'S BODY

Continued from First Page.

until Irene's body was found floating, face downward, in the small pond constituting the neck of a small river.

The crack of a revolver shot or backfire of an automobile, piercing the still night hanging over the Pine Island Pond summer camp colony, was one of the most exciting clues on which the police were working in support of the double murder theory. Yet the accidental drowning idea fostered by the authorities was lent credence by report that a canoe was found floating bottom up in the pond in the early hours of Sunday.

A canoe was found floating, but was not bottom up, a check by the police has shown, and this canoe was not taken from the beachhouse until after Miss Melancon's body was found floating.

All canoes at the beachhouse were checked in at closing time Saturday night and none was rented there after until the floating canoe was found Sunday and abandoned. Thus the accidental drowning theory has little to support it at present.

Irene Melancon, for three years a resident of Winthrop after coming from her home in Nova Scotia, closed her account a week ago Saturday and, with her aunt, Mrs. Catherine Melancon, went to The Elms at Centre Falls for a two-week holiday.

MADE DANCE PARTY "DATE."

On the next day Irene met Chester Breslin, twenty-five-year-old young man well known in that city and a scintillating dancer.

The aunt heard her niece make a "date" with Breslin for the dance just Saturday night, and the "date" was kept. Breslin calling for the girl in the driver coupe he drove.

Earlier in the week Irene had written to twenty-one-year-old Francis McLaughlin of Winthrop, her presumed "boy friend," that she had a date to go to a dance with a nice young man.

Pretty Irene Melancon, Winthrop beauty parlor owner, found dead in Pine Island Pond, near Manchester, N. H. The authorities apparently are no nearer the solution of the mystery than when the body was found Sunday noon.

his backfire came from across the pond. Then silence again closed down.

Irene's body, found alone, fully clothed and with a cash reported to have been on it, was found by a woman on her way to church with her children.

Leon F. Lavoie, Iremian in a Manchester mill and camp at the pond for seventeen years, threw a rope around the body and hauled it ashore.

He said a red stain appeared on the girl's clothing below the breast and that the man he used was slightly stained; also an inkblot which he covered the body, once he had hauled it out.

"STAINS" MADE BY DYE.

These stains, it was reported after by State Pathologist Howard, were made by the dye from a faded dress worn by Irene on her underclothing.

But Lavoie scoffs at the explanation and still declares he knows how the girl was killed.

Irene's watch was stopped at 9:25 and it was first thought that the night indicates the time of death or the time she had either fallen or been placed in the water.

But the couple was placed in the drive hall at that time and later Undertaker Thomas Hill of Everett, to whom the body has been turned over for burial, reported the watch had run down.

Declaring he is suspicious that all has not been told of the condition of Irene's body, Hill indicated today to newspapermen that he will have it examined by medical men in Maine to determine if the girl met her death either there or by drowning.

The State pathologist report says "a trace of water" was found in the lungs.

HILD WATER IN FEAR

The organs of the girl are now at Concord being examined for possible evidences of poison.

Meanwhile the police are hunting for young men said to have accompanied Breslin to coffee parties last Saturday for his usual week-end outing.

The mystery of the case in that Breslin and Miss Melancon have been found in the water, but apparently they did not die by drowning.

According to the girl's brother, Lawrence Melancon, she had a dead-end fear of the water and would not even go sailing at Winthrop lake, near where her shop was located.

'VANITIES' STAR AGAIN ADRIFF IN YACHT

New York, Aug. 11 (Universal).—Ted Healy, star of Earl Carroll's "Vanities," and Dave Chasen, comedian, were missing for the second time within forty-eight hours.

Understandings took their places in the case of "Vanities," while coast guard cutters searched the waters off Long Island for Healy's fifty-foot yacht.

Accompanied by a press agent, Healy, Chasen, Norman Carroll, brother of Earl; R. Russell Mackay, assistant stage manager of the "Vanities"; Martin B. Jones, press-chasing agent for Carroll; Dr. Louis A. Wolfe, house physician of Carroll's theatre, and Harry Schwartz, captain in the medical examiner's office at Bellevue Hospital, drifted helplessly off the New York coast. For two nights, swept again and again by huge combers.

Just before daylight the yacht was carried by the tide to within a mile of Connetquot. The anchor was dropped, and Healy and the crew rowed to shore in a small boat.

After discharging the other guests at Connetquot Island, Healy and Chasen again put to sea in the craft, hoping to reach the yacht still in the North River. They had not been heard from since that morning.

1925 APPLE CROP SMALLER THAN 1924

Worcester, Aug. 11 (A.P.).—A wide variation in New England's apple crop is reported in a bulletin issued here by the New England Crop Reporting Service.

Of the total commercial crop forecast was 1,765,000 barrels, about 93 per cent normal.

The Rhode Island crop on Aug. 1 was 95 per cent normal, Connecticut 64 per cent, Vermont 64 per cent, and Maine 79 per cent.

The present forecast in barrels is: New York 590,000; Maine, 215,000; Vermont, 145,000; Rhode Island, 85,000; and Connecticut, 280,000.

Bryan Bought a Tin Steed Like Coolidge's

Miami, Fla., Aug. 11 (A.P.).—A mechanical horse was purchased by William Jennings Bryan after a visit to President Coolidge last July when he was given a demonstration.

It was delivered at the Bryan home after his death.

Mrs. Bryan plans to present to some civic organization, it was said.

POTATO CROP OF N.E. 44,922,000 BUSHEL

Worcester, Aug. 11 (A.P.).—New England's potato crop last year for each state is as follows: Maine 32,467,000 and 41,175,000; New Hampshire 3,254,000 and 3,830,000; Vermont 1,850,000 and 4,290,000; Massachusetts 2,133,000 and 2,840,000; Rhode Island 360,000 and 410,000; and Connecticut 2,531,000 and 2,475,000.

Figures announced by the New England crop reporting service show the August 1 forecast of production is slightly less than a month ago in Maine and New Hampshire but shows no change in Vermont and small increases in other states.

Present forecast in bushels and estimated harvested crop last year for each state is as follows: Maine 32,467,000 and 41,175,000; New Hampshire 3,254,000 and 3,830,000; Vermont 1,850,000 and 4,290,000; Massachusetts 2,133,000 and 2,840,000; Rhode Island 360,000 and 410,000; and Connecticut 2,531,000 and 2,475,000.

NEW YORKER HELD AS AUTOMOBILE THIEF

St. Albans, Vt., Aug. 11.—J. E. Spoor of New York City and George Marine, Jr., of Burlington were arrested here with a new sedan alleged to have been stolen from a service station in Burlington, Vt., were on their way to Canada.

Top picture shows Inspectors Albert C. Robataille and Thomas D. Kelley dragging Pine Island Pond for the body of Chester Breslin of Malden, companion of Miss Irene Melancon of Winthrop, whose body was found in the pond. Inset in Charles Breslin, brother of the missing man. Lower right shows Albert Desmarreux, Albert, Jr., Loretta and Oliver. The children were with their mother when Miss Melancon's body was found.

SEND IN FUNNY REMARKS AND WIN MONEY

Are you funny? Do the things you say keep your friends in roars of laughter? Are you one of those persons who radiate good cheer every day wherever you are? Do your friends say you are always the life of the party? If so, here's a chance to make some money while enjoying yourself in the bargain. Turn your humorous sayings into money. It's all very easy.

Beginning next Monday the Greater Boston Evening American will print a series of cartoons with "bubbles," or blank spaces left open for you to fill in your funny remarks. The funny pictures in the cartoon will give you ideas to work on.

For the best filled-in cartoon sent to us this newspaper will pay $1 each day for the second best $1; for the third best, and for the next five $1 each.

If you have looked over the newspaper "funnies" have you ever thought you could write something more humorous to go with the pictures? If you have, here's your golden opportunity to try it out.

The filled-in cartoons must be mailed to the "Funnies Editor" of the Boston Evening American with the day of publication, to be eligible for prizes.

Add this fascinating pastime to either your indoor or outdoor sports while on vacation. Get groups of friends to do likewise. Make a contest and see which person in the group lands a prize.

Remember, send Monday the first cartoon will be printed. Prizes are awarded promptly in recognition.

TODAY

Continued from First Page.

Next soon, and fortunately there isn't any doubt about it. President Coolidge, with his urging, has caused high finance to become interested.

Henry Ford, the ablest manufacturer in the world, building machines of the best modern type, plans to produce the "Bolt-proof" flying machine. What he plans he usually does.

John Hays Hammond and others are interested in a $500,000 commercial flying corporation, to be managed, perhaps, by Owen B. Young, the financial genius of the DuPont plan.

The United States atmosphere will soon be full of flying machines, then goodby worry about foreign attack.

CHILDREN IN Great Britain

are bigger than they were, desks in the schools are too small for this generation. That's good news for the future of the British Empire.

British children now get outdoor exercise, instead of spending their youth in mills as they used to do. The British government took the hint when it became every day harder to find men of right size for the army. The British race was evidently growing smaller.

They decided that starving children to keep them small enough to go down chimneys, and grinding up children in mills and factories, was a bad idea.

They passed laws to stop that. We tried to pass such laws in this country, but our distinguished Supreme Court said it wasn't Constitutional to interfere with the exploitation of child life.

Women's Washable Chamois Slip-on Gloves

CROSS

$3.25

Natural color; gathered wrist.

THE WORLD'S GREATEST LEATHER STORES
Stores: 145 Tremont St., Near Temple Place
New York, 804 Fifth Ave., 7th Broadway

THIS COUNTRY is going to have a commercial flying

R.H. White Co.

Men's 2-Trouser Suits (mixtures)

Reduced to '29.50 & '38.50

(We do not advertise former prices but our reductions and values are all the more substantial for that reason.)

One-trouser Suits

Reduced to $24.50 and $29.50

Goodman & Suss Style Suits

Reduced to $39.50

Prepare for More Hot Weather Coming

Men's New Mohair Suits

'12.95

Just Arrived!

End Floor, Main Building

The new Autumn Bag is of genuine Pin Murecco in Black, Brown, Grey or Tan, trimmed with Blended Lizard Calfskin as illustrated. It is seven inches wide and seven deep—made with silk lined, fitted with inside change-panels and, of course, a mirror.

Specialty priced in $5.00 cluding monogram.

Stowell's

NEW MONOGRAM BAG

The new Autumn Bag is of genuine Pin Murecco in Black, Brown, Grey or Tan, trimmed with Blended Lizard Calfskin as illustrated. It is seven inches wide and seven deep—made with silk lined, fitted with inside change-panels and, of course, a mirror.

Specialty priced in $5.00 cluding monogram.

Stowell's

NEW MONOGRAM BAG

Housers' Corset Service

Light as a feather
Cool as a cucumber
Comfort itself

WB Doublette
Doubles the Beauty of Your Figure

They combine snuggly bandage with semi-elastic girdles—They hold your figure in long graceful lines—Substitute A SEPARATE DRESS FOR STOUT WOMEN

Where expert and trained corset-makers give them special fittings—selected corsets and brassieres—Most complete and efficient corset service for stout women in Boston.

The Finding Phone
Liberty 4000

Saves Useless Steps
Here's how:
A Peabody man asked: "Where can I buy slip covers for an Oakland car?"
A Peabody man asked: "Where can I have wedding invitations printed?"
A Plymouth man asked: "Where can I buy a Trumbull car?"
A Charlestown man asked: "Where can I buy Fox-Tie-A-Lies?"
A Medford woman asked: "Where can I buy rubber tips for a bassinet?"
A Winthrop, Maine, woman asked: "Where can I buy 'Sheet Rock'?"

HAVE YOU A SHOPPING QUESTION?
The Finding Phone will answer it Free of Charge.

PHONE—WRITE—VISIT
The Where-Can-I-Buy Service
Information Headquarters
Boston Evening American
82 Summer St., Boston

GAMES HEADED OFF, 'GUNDERLA' DECEASES

Continued from First Page.

Mr. Browning was delivering all sorts of messages to reporters which were supposed to come from him. One story he gave out hurt more than all others. He told people "Mary has renounced her parents. They were not good to her. I've said such things about my darling people who were always so good to me."

LEFT ALONE AT FIRST

"For that the alone I want to make Browning pay heavily. I shall see him and take the money and give it to the Society for Prevention of Cruelty to Animals. I have given up hope that anything can prevent people from being cruel to children."

While reporters were getting all these "messages" from him, he was what was actually happening behind closed doors of our city—locked to prevent me getting out, not locked to prevent Browning getting in. The first night in the Inn he let me alone and I slept well because I felt that all my fears were not sense and that Browning was a good kind gentleman.

The second night was different. Again a locked my doors. I got into bed and then there came a knock. I ran to the door and Browning called from the other side:

ALWAYS LOVEY TALK

"Paddy mustn't keep her door locked. What will her honey-bunch do if fire breaks out and he can't save her?"

He was always talking lovey language like that.

One night he made the same excuse about the danger of fire and the locking glass.

The third night I suddenly wanted to kill him for what he had done. I can never see the faintest spark that I wanted to get a few pennies and shoot him. I set up to look around for a gun. I thought all men had guns. But Browning did not have hidden it. I could find nothing, and running around in my slinky coat made me angry.

TOOING BURNED THROAT

That night was when I first got the idea. I lay there and thought about the bottles in the cabinet in the bathroom.

And the next day I did what I was thinking about. Browning had been telling me all morning that if I ran away and told on him I would be to a reform school for many years.

"If you go away from here," he said, "you'll just be locked up in another place that will be worse."

I tried to go home but he wouldn't let me. I watched for a chance and got into the bathroom and locked the door. I took the bottle marked iodine. I was so nervous and that I didn't even taste the iodine. I bricked in my throat and then I screamed. I thought help screaming.

GOT BORMIAN DOCTOR

But if anyone asks me "Why did you try to commit suicide?" I'll answer, "Who wouldn't?"

The scream brought Browning and he tried to push in the door. "I won't open. I'll stay here and die."

He argued with me. I said: "If you get a doctor and he is a Bohemian like my own people, I will open. He must be a Bohemian. And I won't let him in unless he can say 'Czech' the way I say it."

He went away a long time, and then a voice came back and it said "Czech" just like I say it and I knew I should meet one of my own people, so I opened.

I wish I hadn't. The doctor talked with Mr. Browning. I believe he was told what to say. He spoke in Czech and told me:

"The good or we call the police. Then your parents will be deported to Bohemia and you will go to jail for your own people."

THOUGHT SHE WAS DEAD

I think they were trying to drive me mad. The doctor said: "If you don't do that we will see you put in an asylum."

And I thought that I was nearly mad. I thought really go to the madman for the rest of my life. So I thought, "I must be a boy and never acknowledge it."

I became very humble and did whatever Browning said. His tone was that of a doctor and a policeman because some rumors were getting out of the hotel and must tell them how happy I was. He dictated and I wrote:

"I am tired of what has been put upon me. I want to be a newspaper and a public official. Mr. Browning is the finest man in the world. He has been a father to me."

"Mary Louise says Browning."

"And he had me sit with him at the dinner table and smile while the photographers took pictures to show how sweet and happy everything was."

EXAMINED BY PHYSICIAN. After that Mr. Browning never came very near me again. He got Miss Virginia Martin to be a nurse for me and watch me all the time and be in the room when he was. She was a nice person and her minds me of the most awful experience I ever had.

On the day he brought me to Kew Gardens, Mr. Browning noticed that I was coughing and he said we would go to see a doctor and have my throat sprayed. It was useless. I was in bed for a week.

He examined me all over so terrible that I thought I would die of shame.

NEVER SEEN $20,000.

But when I left Mr. Browning it was because I was tired of what it was all about. Miss Martin had to examine me again because Mr. Browning made her. I could not like her after that.

She was my friend but, at the last minute, she changed. She was going to go with me when I left. Mr. Browning got her to stay with him.

Mr. Browning has been telling a lot about all the money he spent on me—$20,000 he says. I think he must be spending it and it wasn't $20,000. That was $200 too much. He didn't buy me a dress, only one. He didn't buy me on Fifth avenue. He bought them in downtown New York. He didn't buy me a Rolls Royce car. He took me around in a car he rented from his chauffeur.

TOLD WHAT TO SAY?

He told me: "Tell the boys from the papers about your Fifth avenue dress and jewelry and your Rolls Royce and the 16-lake radio set. It will give them something to write about."

It used to be funny to read about me in the papers and hear the men when I was sitting in a dress not quite as nice as some I had in my closet. I thought my chum in the window because I had nothing else to do.

Mr. Browning was tickled to death by the newspaper stories.

When the end came he threw me out with the clothes I had on my back and with the change of a $5 bill to my pocket.

GRATEFUL FOR RESCUE.

Mr. Francis C. Dale, his lawyer, was there and Mr. Dale told me about the case.

"30 LOVE" BUT GAME'S OVER

Gertrude Ederle Will Then Try Feat That Almost Killed Argentine

Paris, Aug. 11. (N.A.S.)—From Buenos Aires today came a statement from Joseph Costa, manager of Miss Gertrude Ederle, the American swimmer, declaring Miss Ederle will not attempt to swim the English Channel before August 17.

She had planned to get away today.

Beel Needed to Resist Cold Water, Trainer Says

Paris, Aug. 11. (N.A.S.)—You can't swim the Channel on vegetables. This was the verdict today of Jules Verne, veteran trainer, after the failure of Miss Lillian Harrison of Buenos Aires in her fourth attempt to swim the Channel.

"Miss Harrison's refusal to bathe in a state of collapse was undoubtedly lessened her resistance to the cold," the trainer said.

After today, in her disappointment when taken from the water in a state of exhaustion, Miss Harrison said she was through with the difficult Channel tide and storms, she will today be hoped to try it again next year.

I am sure I would have succeeded if the water had not been so cold, she said.

Miss Harrison swam eight miles from Dover, opposite Dover Castle, when she narrowly missed drowning in a state of collapse when eight miles from Dover had a slight lapse after reaching her home at Dungeness today.

The doctor says her condition is serious, but that she will need some weeks. They detected her as she ran down the beach.

Argentine Girl Suffers Relapse After Long Swim

Buenos Aires, Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Miss Lillian Harrison of Buenos Aires, who was taken from the water in a state of collapse when eight miles from Dover had a slight lapse after reaching her home at Dungeness today.

The doctor says her condition is serious, but that she will need some weeks. They detected her as she ran down the beach.

A. F. O. L. HEAD RAPS JUDGES' APPOINTMENT

Boston, Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Boston's court officials, which thrive on the policy of "let's scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" was attacked by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, as being responsible for lowering the quality and capacity of judges appointed recently by the Federal bench.

President Green declared matter as he could make his influence felt in the quality and capacity of judges appointed recently by the Federal bench.

The address, Mr. Green declared, was his first pronouncement of a militant program since he assumed leadership.

British Strike Continues

Bradford, Eng., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—The prolonged negotiations to settle the wages dispute in the wool textile industry here has broken down for a second time in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. 135,000 workers took place July 24.

The Mayor's Club passed a resolution today asking the Governor to grant them a hearing and express the confidence in the way they are being handled. The club is a most beneficial and equitable to all the people of the Commonwealth.

Appreciating the power of organization the various communities are now making a united fight. They demand a probe of the telephone monopoly.

They adopted a resolution asking that Governor Fuller grant them a hearing and express the confidence in the way they are being handled. The club is a most beneficial and equitable to all the people of the Commonwealth.

CLAN-NA-GAELS PLAN FOR FROLIC SATURDAY

Massachusetts will hold its fifth annual frolic at Russell Field, Cambridge, Saturday, August 15. Interesting features have been arranged, including Gaelic football, track and field, and dancing. The main event of the day will be the Gaelic football game between the track and field and the Gaelic football game between the track and field.

SALEM DOCTOR DIES IN CANADIAN RIVER

St. John's, N. B., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Dr. Nelson G. Trueman of Salem, Mass., died in the Canadian River near Quebec. The body was not recovered. He was attacked in the St. Lawrence Department of Mental Diseases division for the examination of prisoners. His district was Essex County. He was a graduate of Harvard Medical School, 1908, and spent several years in the Canadian River near Quebec.

Britain Gets Soviet Orders

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—It is stated here that the Soviet Government has placed contracts for cotton cloth valued at $1,500,000 with Lancashire firms. This will help the cotton trade in Lancashire.

U. S. GIRL HALTS GRANDFATHER'S SWIM UNTIL AUG. 10

Gertrude Ederle Will Then Try Feat That Almost Killed Argentine

Paris, Aug. 11. (N.A.S.)—From Buenos Aires today came a statement from Joseph Costa, manager of Miss Gertrude Ederle, the American swimmer, declaring Miss Ederle will not attempt to swim the English Channel before August 17.

She had planned to get away today.

Beel Needed to Resist Cold Water, Trainer Says

Paris, Aug. 11. (N.A.S.)—You can't swim the Channel on vegetables. This was the verdict today of Jules Verne, veteran trainer, after the failure of Miss Lillian Harrison of Buenos Aires in her fourth attempt to swim the Channel.

"Miss Harrison's refusal to bathe in a state of collapse was undoubtedly lessened her resistance to the cold," the trainer said.

After today, in her disappointment when taken from the water in a state of exhaustion, Miss Harrison said she was through with the difficult Channel tide and storms, she will today be hoped to try it again next year.

I am sure I would have succeeded if the water had not been so cold, she said.

Miss Harrison swam eight miles from Dover, opposite Dover Castle, when she narrowly missed drowning in a state of collapse when eight miles from Dover had a slight lapse after reaching her home at Dungeness today.

The doctor says her condition is serious, but that she will need some weeks. They detected her as she ran down the beach.

Argentine Girl Suffers Relapse After Long Swim

Buenos Aires, Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Miss Lillian Harrison of Buenos Aires, who was taken from the water in a state of collapse when eight miles from Dover had a slight lapse after reaching her home at Dungeness today.

The doctor says her condition is serious, but that she will need some weeks. They detected her as she ran down the beach.

A. F. O. L. HEAD RAPS JUDGES' APPOINTMENT

Boston, Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Boston's court officials, which thrive on the policy of "let's scratch my back and I'll scratch yours" was attacked by William Green, president of the American Federation of Labor, as being responsible for lowering the quality and capacity of judges appointed recently by the Federal bench.

President Green declared matter as he could make his influence felt in the quality and capacity of judges appointed recently by the Federal bench.

The address, Mr. Green declared, was his first pronouncement of a militant program since he assumed leadership.

British Strike Continues

Bradford, Eng., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—The prolonged negotiations to settle the wages dispute in the wool textile industry here has broken down for a second time in Portland, Seattle, San Francisco, and Los Angeles. 135,000 workers took place July 24.

The Mayor's Club passed a resolution today asking the Governor to grant them a hearing and express the confidence in the way they are being handled. The club is a most beneficial and equitable to all the people of the Commonwealth.

Appreciating the power of organization the various communities are now making a united fight. They demand a probe of the telephone monopoly.

They adopted a resolution asking that Governor Fuller grant them a hearing and express the confidence in the way they are being handled. The club is a most beneficial and equitable to all the people of the Commonwealth.

CLAN-NA-GAELS PLAN FOR FROLIC SATURDAY

Massachusetts will hold its fifth annual frolic at Russell Field, Cambridge, Saturday, August 15. Interesting features have been arranged, including Gaelic football, track and field, and dancing. The main event of the day will be the Gaelic football game between the track and field and the Gaelic football game between the track and field.

SALEM DOCTOR DIES IN CANADIAN RIVER

St. John's, N. B., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—Dr. Nelson G. Trueman of Salem, Mass., died in the Canadian River near Quebec. The body was not recovered. He was attacked in the St. Lawrence Department of Mental Diseases division for the examination of prisoners. His district was Essex County. He was a graduate of Harvard Medical School, 1908, and spent several years in the Canadian River near Quebec.

Britain Gets Soviet Orders

Manchester, Eng., Aug. 11. (A.P.)—It is stated here that the Soviet Government has placed contracts for cotton cloth valued at $1,500,000 with Lancashire firms. This will help the cotton trade in Lancashire.

Injured Boxer

Jack Lyons, who is in a serious condition of the Massachusetts General Hospital following his bout with Jimmy Madden (below) of Roxbury at Revere, Lyons was knocked out with a vicious jab.

New York, Aug. 11.—Reports that Tishoff Valentino is losing his hair were denied today by persons who recently saw him working on his new picture, "The Lion's Den," in his Hollywood studio.

"You will get the thrill of your life when you see him in a Russian costume," one of his recent visitors said. "I saw him march on the set in a gorgeous long coat and velvet slacks. He is a machine of toms high caps in his hand. His hair is just the way it was in 'The Lion's Den'."

Claims Big Bond Halts Dorchester Tunnel Bids

Charging that the requirement for posting of a bond by contractors bidding on the Dorchester Tunnel project has discouraged competition and that announcements calling for bids do not contain the best terms for the city, the Finance Committee, with Acting Chairman Courtney Quinlan, has called Mayor Curley's attention to the alleged error.

LET US REPAIR YOUR WATCH

Unbreakable Crystal Wrist Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

Gold Watch

White-Watch

The Biggest

in America

No sacrifice in quality. Same good old Tuxedo properly aged.

Perfectly blended—always FRESH.

Every dealer's supply is dated. Stating the last day it can be sold.

Guaranteeing you FRESH Tuxedo wherever, whenever you buy it.

Quality created the demand—demand made possible the price.

Guaranteeing you FRESH Tuxedo wherever, whenever you buy it.

Quality created the demand—demand made possible the price.

Guaranteeing you FRESH Tuxedo wherever, whenever you buy it.

Quality created the demand—demand made possible the price.

Guaranteeing you FRESH Tuxedo wherever, whenever you buy it.

Quality created the demand—demand made possible the price.

Guaranteeing you FRESH Tuxedo wherever, whenever you buy it.

WIFE IN LOVE WITH HUB SO MOVES HERE

Francis X. Cody and Wife
United After Frantic Search

Francis X. Cody, wealthy New York, N. J., importer, who followed his wife, Gwendolyn, to Boston and spent much time and money before he found her, is preparing to transfer his home and business to Boston because Mrs. Cody is "charmed" with Boston's old world atmosphere and its resemblance to London.

Mrs. Cody wasn't insisting at all, she assured her husband when the couple were united in a Black Bay hotel—the just availed herself of privilege alleged to have been agreed to, in a unique separation marriage pact some months ago.

Mr. Cody was to carry on his business in Newark while Mrs. Cody was engaged in the real estate business in Boston for one year. But as far as can be learned, it was not stipulated in the pact that Mrs. Cody was to leave Newark for the Hub while Mr. Cody was about from New Jersey.

Mrs. Cody left a note and all that, but Cody didn't receive it. That's the reason for the frantic search.

Now they're looking for a nice apartment house in the suburbs.

August Mark Downs
Sale of Diamond Engagement Rings.
Prices Greatly Reduced.
Now is the Time to Buy
E. B. Horn & Co.
Open Saturday Evenings
429 Washington St.
Jewelers for 86 years

MILKMAN GIRL MAY BE SENT TO SHERBORN

On Probation as Stubborn Child When She Feigned to Leap From Roof

Threatening to leap from the roof of the building at No. 23 St. Botolph street, an attempt which terrified hundreds in the vicinity, may land Miss Sarah Melman, eighteen, of No. 11 West street, Newton, Woman's Reformatory at Sherborn.

Sarah had been on probation for some time as a stubborn child on complaint of her parents and when she appeared in Newton District Court Judge Bacon revoked the suspension. The girl appealed, bonds of $100 being furnished by her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Melman.

CHANEY STARRING IN NEW FILM AT STATE

A mystery picture both unique and thrilling is "The Unholy Three," the Metro-Goldwyn-Mayer production starring Lon Chaney and featuring Mae Busch and Matt Moore. It is now playing at Lowe's State. The Browning, who directed it, has contributed his greatest work to the screen in this singular tale of the careers of three unpunished freaks thrown together in a dime museum. The story is a most unusual one and deals with a giant, a midget and a ventriloquist, who forsake their life in the museum to pursue a career of robbery and murder. Great as has been Chaney's work in previous pictures he certainly outdoes himself in "The Unholy Three." Other screen features were also presented.

Harold Vanderbilt Off to N. Y. Yacht Club's Cruise

Eastern Club to Be Well Represented at Newport Festivities and Races

Barry Golden

HAROLD VANDERBILT, WHO EACH SEASON brings his socially distinguished self to the North Shore for an August stay (his bachelor household usually occupies Mrs. John Caswell's "Round Plain Farm" at Beverly Farms), left last evening for New York and New London, in anticipation of the annual cruise of the New York Yacht Club.

THE VANDERBILT "YACHT" will sail, with a number of other well-known yachts of local flavor, on Friday next from New London. According to the itinerary arranged by Commodore George Nichols of the New York Yacht Club and his fleet captain, W. B. Duncan, the first run is for Block Island.

VINEYARD HAVEN, Mattapoisett and Hingham ports, where the King's and the Astor cups will be raced for, complete the cruise. For the festivities at Newport, both afloat and ashore, the Eastern Yacht Club members will be finely represented by Commodore Nathaniel Ayer, Vice-Commodore John S. Lawrence and other skippers with a full complement of guests.

THE CHARLES L. HARDINGSON and their yacht "Wildfire," now in Newport waters, entertained with their usual lavish hospitality recently at a luncheon and day cruise for some fifty guests. The Harding Summer place is in "Sea Cove" at Prince's Neck, the winter establishment out in Dedham. The skipper of the "Wildfire," with both New York and Eastern Yacht Club membership, is another local yachtsman due for some spirited contests in the next week.

SPEAKING OF Newport, Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Currier James are entertaining Mr. and (Photograph by Bachrach.)

Mrs. Robert Gould Shaw, 24, of "Boulder Farm" in Newton Centre, is spending a Summer at the North Shore, having taken the Jordan estate, "The Rocks," at West Manchester.

Mrs. Joseph Linde Smith, Miss Rebecca and Miss Frances Smith at their place, "Beacon Hill House" out on the Shore Drive. The Smiths, following a Summer program, have been at the Dublin, N. H. place, where Mr. Smith and Miss Rebecca put in many an hour before the easel.

WITH MRS. WILLIAM GOR-DON MEANS at the helm and "Silverwater" is setting a sure success in its store for the annual garden fête of the Children's Hospital Club at the North Shore. Tiny lots of three or four years and so on through to the sixteen-year-olds, will be hereabouts.

WOMAN IN AUTO CRASH DIES AT HOSPITAL

Son and Two Others Hurt
When Car Hits Bus on Mohawk Trail

Chatham, Aug. 11.—Mrs. Marion Fernald of Providence, R. I., died at the Fernald Hospital in Montague from a fractured spine, suffered when the auto in which she was riding, was in collision with a bus on the Mohawk Trail.

Frederic Fernald, the dead woman's son, suffered laceration of the scalp and other injuries. Others in the machine, who were slightly hurt, gave their names as G. Leonard, Cohasset; and R. Fernald of Providence. All were taken to the Fernald Hospital.

It is reported that the car, which was going westward on the Mohawk Trail, swung out of line to pass another machine. As it did so the big bus came along in the opposite direction. The bus driver attempted to turn out into a field, but the other car skidded. It is said, and the crash occurred.

ELABORATE FEATURES FOR FAIRBANKS FILM

The next sale begins tomorrow at the Colonial Theatre for the entertainment of Douglas Fairbanks in "Don Q. Son of Zorro," which opens next Monday night. After the opening night, the showings will be given twice daily. Preparations are making a large force of decorators and stage operators, so that the conditions attending the recently closed run of the playhouse in New York may also mark the showings here. Some surprises in the way of atmosphere creation are promised. An elaborate program is another feature which will attend the picture. There will be a large orchestra to play the specially composed music.

CREATORE BAND OPENS AT NORUMBECA SUNDAY

Creator and his famous band will fill an engagement of fourteen concerts, beginning next Sunday at Norumbeca. The Creators will give two concerts daily in the theatre, at 2 P. M. and 8 P. M. Paulina Talmi will appear as soloist. A special Verdi program will be played on Wednesday evening, August 13.

Week's Features

TREMONT TEMPLE—"Destina With a Million," with Mary Carr in the title role.
BOWDOIN SQ.—"The Light of the Western Stars," "Up the Ladder," and other films and vaudeville.
BOSTON—"My Lady's Lips," with Clara Bow in the leading role. Vaudeville, with Trigo dancers as headliners.
GORDON OLIVIERA—"One Way Street," starring Alton C. Nelson. Vaudeville.

SCULLAY SQ.—"The Rocking Box," with an all-star cast. Vaudeville.
ROBERTSON AND PIERCE—"Grounds for Divorce," with Florence Vidor, Matt Moore, Louise Plamondon, also "True to Love."

CAPITOL—"The Marquis White" and "Light of the Western Stars."
ALFORD—"Paint Perfume" and "Stop Firing," beginning Thursday. "After Business Hours" and "The Dangerous Sex."

CENTRAL—"The Heart of a Lion," with Barbara La Marr and Connee Tabor. Vaudeville. Beginning Thursday, "Light of the Western Stars."

CODMAN—"Mary Mc" and "The Hunchback House," beginning Thursday. "Light of the Western Stars" and "Eve's Love."

FIDELITY CORNER—"The Making of O'Malley" and "Tempting Pictures," beginning Thursday. "Your Secret" and "Playthings of the Air." Friday "The Old Fool" and "The Mad Dancer."

MEISTERSTERS ONE OF KEITH'S FEATURES

Dividing honors on the new bill at Keith's are the popular Meistersterns, Boston vocalists who have been a summer feature at this vaudeville house for many seasons, and Odette Myrtil, a French revue favorite, who sings and also gives violin solos. These two featured acts were enthusiastically received.

The summers due in aerial stunts, the clever and amusing juggling of Sam Kavenough and the novel comedy on Hollywood life presented by Haven MacQuarrie and Company are high spots on an unusually good program. Marie Walsh and Frank Ellis offer a bright comedy sketch and other hits are made for Harris and Halsey, a blackface troupe, and by a song and dance act featuring Mildred Crowe.

3 ARMED THUGS HOLD UP HUB LUNCH ROOM

Escape With $30 From Cash
Register in Stuart Street
Restaurant

Three thugs, one of them armed with a revolver, escaped with from $25 to $40 from the cash register of the Vale Lunch, No. 473 Stuart street, early today after holding up William Heagy of No. 41 Huntington avenue, night counter man.

After giving an order to the waiter one of the trio drew a revolver and shouting it under Heagy's nose, commanded him to step aside. The thugs then cleaned out the cash drawer and fled.

ALLEGED KIDNAP VICTIMS ARRESTED AS ALIENS

Tampan, Fla., Aug. 11 (AP).—Eight Portuguese who told police last Friday that they came here from Massachusetts, were captured by confidence men, held captive for twelve days, and robbed of $2,000, were arrested today after they confessed to being aliens, who entered the country illegally.

DENTISTS

GOOD ROOF SET
GUARANTEED $12.50
PAINTLESS EXTRACTORS FREE
When Plates Are Ordered
Our Price Are Reasonable
Examinations FREE
BRIDGE WORK per tooth $6
Silver Fillings
Cleanings
$1
Plates repaired while you wait. Our plates provide time and save the extra cost of extra plates and extra waiting hours.
DR. HEWSON DENTAL CO.
427 Washington St., Opp. Files's
Hours: Daily, 8:30 A. M. to 6 P. M.
Evening All the Weekdays 7 P. M. to 9 P. M.
Ladies Attended

$1,000 for your Face!

Do your friends say you are as charming as one of the young girls pictured here? . . . If so, you have an excellent chance of winning a $1,000 check.

Above are some of the attractive girls who are being considered for the second award of a $1,000 check in SMART SET's cover model contest.

Here is RUTH HARKINS— selected as the first winner in SMART SET's cover contest. This is what the award brought her—and what the next award may bring YOU!

1. A $1,000 check.
2. Her portrait in oil painted by Henry Clive.
3. Publicity in scores of newspapers, read by millions.
4. A start toward a stage career.

SMART SET
True Stories from Real Life
Buy It Now—All News-stands

Use Coupon If You Cannot Get SMART SET at a News-stand

SMART SET MAGAZINE
Does $2.00, 115 W. 4th St., New York

I enclose $1.00, for which enter my name on your mailing list to receive the next SMART SET magazine, with the September issue.

(If you prefer to use SMART SET magazine before you subscribe, mail us 25 cents and we will send you one copy of the September issue at once.)

Name _____
Address _____
City _____ State _____

WOMAN'S SCREAM SCARES AWAY MASKED ROBBER
 Mr. Harbor, Me., Aug. 11.—When Dr. Edward T. Stotbury of Philadelphia went to her room in the Jada Cottage after returning from a party, she was startled and very frightened when she found a masked burglar there. She screamed as he made a flying leap through a window.

EAST BOSTON GIRL FEARED DYING FROM POISON
 Mrs. Pearl Mason, twenty-five years of age, living at No. 41 Huntington street, East Boston, is in a serious condition at East Boston Hospital after a suicide attempt at her home when she swallowed a number of bottles of mercury tablets, according to the police of the East Boston station. She has been despondent for some time.

BOY OF FOUR VICTIM IN AUTO ACCIDENT
 Running from the Public Garden across Charles street, Walter Konig, four years old, of No. 18, Wiget street, North End, was struck by an automobile and received a fractured skull. His name is on the danger list at Massachusetts General. The automobile was operated by Louis E. Grant of No. 1209 Brighton street.

VISITORS YOU SHOULD NOT MISS MEETING

Boston, its tall buildings, tanglefoot streets and historic points are the goals for a most distinguished pair of visitors from Ireland this week. Paul Chagnone and Maud Wilkins, well-known vaudeville team, are in town. They are announcing their presence to as many Hub folk as possible by promenadeing through the masses gathered and broadcasting the reduction in price of the Boston Evening American.

A couple of Country Cousins are smiling around Boston this week, giving the tall buildings the once over, and causing the street crowds many a hearty laugh. "As good as vaudeville," seems to be the popular verdict. Which is not strange at all, because the visitors from Ireland are Paul Chagnone and Maud Wilkins, a well-known vaudeville team. Their rural scenery is makeup, and their four Cousins are "all gone." Wilkins and Chagnone are out advertising the Boston Evening American at 3 cents the copy the new price.

They are the top-toppers, the chortles being made up of the boys and men who are doing the advertising with the placards announcing the new price. Miss Wilkins has a real feeling of warm personal friendliness for the Boston Evening American, for she is known on the stage as "The Chickie Girl," and when she was last in Boston the story of "Chickie" was running in this newspaper.

Leg Broken by Rail
 Joseph Sever, twenty-one, of No. 4 West Glenwood avenue, Hyde Park, was pinned beneath a car on Boston street, South Boston, when the iron rail slid from a truck. His left leg was broken.

Store Closed Saturdays During August

Jordan Marsh Company

VALUE—QUALITY—SERVICE—ASSORTMENTS

A Limited Number—

NOW is the best time for you to buy one of these

Victor Talking Machines

Which Are Marked at 1/2 the Usual Prices

This is the Victor 80
 Usual price 100.00
 With Needles
 Sale Price 54.50

The Victor 215 for Radio Installation
 Usual price 160.00
 With Albums and Needles
 Sale Price 80.00

A Limited Quantity Victor Red Seal Single Face Records

Included at these prices is a great collection of records by the Victor artists whose records are well known and admired by thousands of lovers of music throughout the country. A wonderful opportunity to secure these artists' records at remarkably low prices.

10 Inch 35c      12 Inch 50c or 3 for 1.00

SECOND FLOOR OF THE ANNEX

Pay as You Ride

You can walk into a reliable used car dealer's showroom with a small amount of money and drive home a good car that you'll like.

There is no waiting for delivery. You see the car you buy and "ride it out."

And during the time you're enjoying it you can be paying for it in convenient payments.

If there is a certain make or model that you prefer, you can get it . . . on easy terms.

Take a few minutes now to read the good used car offers today in the

CLASSIFIED ADS

—on the next-to-the-last pages

JOBLESS GIRL TELLS OF HUNT FOR WORK

Continued from Page 4

As seven or eight women were sitting there patiently, some knitting and sewing, until they should be "called out" to be passed on by a prospective employer. Suddenly, had a warm-hearted Bridget informed me that a "little girl like you stands a big chance" when the manager called me out, and my name, address and experience. I told him that I was a "green girl" but that I was willing to learn and needed the job desperately.

The manager appeared very interested in my story. He told me not to bother about payment of the fee, that he would place me with a good family, and that I could send him the money the second or third week after I was "out," and to go back and wait while he considered jobs he had in mind.

Gets a Job

Bridget and a Nova Boston cook named "Vivian" were slated over my good luck. They told me to strike the manager for a place at the beach, where the work was never so hard and where I could have a good time.

"I've waited here for almost a month," said Bridget, "because I want a good job when I get one. I'm getting old and most of the jobs go to the young girls like you. Folks don't even seem to care whether they're getting a good cook or not now, so long as they're getting a young one."

Again I was summoned by the manager and Bridget and Vivian were all after me. "Remember what we told you, 'Vivian,'" they counselled, "strike him for big pay, a place at the beach, and no children."

"That was a large order but it was already presented by the manager. I was told to go up there, get set out for a position in Swampscott as general maid with a small family who were spending the summer there."

I thanked the manager for his prompt help and trudged on my way. "Well, one down," said I as I chatted it off. "What says it's hard to get a job, Jerry-the-Job-Hunter? But that was then—and I was still a 'green' gal."

What happens to a "green girl" to the summer capital? Jerry will tell you tomorrow, together with all the details of her experience. Watch the "Heart's" score!

BURTON, FINANCIER, DIES AT MASS. HOME
 New York, Aug. 11 (A.P.)—Robert M. Burton, president of the American Laundry Machinery Company and prominent Ohio financier, died at his summer home, Wino, Mass., according to a message to the local offices of the company.

R.H. White Co.

Mail Orders Filled—Boston 8      Telephone Orders Filled—Beach 3100

Wednesday and Thursday

Crepe-Back Satin Tunics $14.35

New flare side insets, narrow roll collar, finished with scarf ends of contrasting color. Long close-fitting sleeves.

Colors: Black, Gracklehead blue and cuckoo brown.

House Dept., 2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Young Men's Two Trouser Suits $29.75

Advance styles. New fall mixture suits. Single breasted and double breasted suits. Sizes 14 to 42.

2nd Floor, Mainline

Wednesday and Thursday

Pre-Shrunk Japanese Crepe Dresses $1.88

Two models, either round neck or V neck. Trimmed with hand-made picot lace.

Colors: Blue, Orchid, Tan and Gray.

House Dress Dept., 2nd Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Men's Repp Negligee Shirts $1.19

Fancy or plain stripes. Sizes 14 to 17.

Men's Furnishing Dept., Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Colored Linen Bridge Sets $1.39 Set

Includes colored refreshment cloth and four napkins. Colors: Rose, Tan and Gold with white patch corners nicely over-stitched in white.

Wednesday and Thursday

39-In. Printed Georgeette, $1.69 yd.

Beautiful color combinations.

Wednesday and Thursday

32-In. Dress Prints, 38c yd.

Small figures, fast colors.

Wednesday and Thursday

36-In. Sateen (cotton), 27c yd.

For slips. Wide and narrow shadow stripes. Light, medium and dark colors.

Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Men's Dark Brown Oxfords $3.95

Crepe rubber and leather sole. Not all sizes in either kind but all sizes in the lot.

Sizes 6 to 10, C to E widths.

2nd Floor, Mainline

Wednesday and Thursday

Corn Holders 45c pair

Sterling handles, attractive design like set of corn.

Wednesday and Thursday

Teacettes 68c

Sterling silver handles, silver plated tea holder, shape of spoon.

Walnut Room, Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Sanitary Skirt Protectors 24c ea

Bathing Caps 24c ea

Close fitting and trimmed.

Smallware, Street Floor

Wednesday and Thursday

Brocaded Boudoir Novelties $2.49

For the dresser. Handkerchief and glove box, comb brush, mirror, tray and powder boxes. Colors: Rose, Blue and Orchid. Lace and rosebud trimming.

Wednesday and Thursday

Georgeette and Cretonne Boudoir Bed Lights $1.89

Made up with cord and socket. Colors: Rose, Blue and Gold.

Wednesday and Thursday

Unbleached Stamped Aprons 32c

Choice of several attractive designs.

Art Embroidery Dept., Street Floor

Boxing. Every day on these pages the brilliant articles by Conway. They interest and inform.

FLATLEY LOOKS

CALLS 'EM
A Real Ball Game
Naturalness Helps
Boxer and Manager
The Sarge of Youth

By NICK FLATLEY
G up to Fenway Park today if you like excitement. There'll be a million kids, more or less, spilling the air, as well as the backs of the seats. It's the first Boston Boys' Day, which is to be an American League institution. No adult can yell like a kid. There's no enthusiasm like the wild, sincere brand of boyhood. Fenway Park will vibrate with a racket today that hasn't been heard since Hank Flatley was in the world series time. The youngsters have their ball game at noon. Watching it will do you more good than lunch. Then you can linger and take a peek at Ty Cobb and the Tigers. Our ball yard has been cauder than midnight in August lately, but the funeral trappings will be ripped off this afternoon.

YOUTH is natural. Its frenzied cheering comes right from the heart. And naturalness always thrills. It is the greatest of all human traits. Walter Johnson, undernourished and nervous, was far from natural in two games of the last World Series. He was knocked out of the box in both. Walter, with the cause wrecked and all hope gone, brought his everyday disposition into the last game. It was the greatest of riches once more. He won the most widely scolding World Series pennant ever played because he was just himself.

WHICH reminds us of the boxer who was making his first ring appearance. His opponent was experienced and clever. He jumped on the kid and proceeded to pepper him, had him smothered with boxing gloves. "Give him the old one, two, boy!" yelled the youngster's second. "Give him the old one, two." The one, two, in ring parlance, means the shooting of a left jab, followed by a right cross, or vice versa. But the novice, pawing wildly, was almost when the ball saved him. The minute's rest brought him back to life. "Knock his block off," shouted a second, as he pushed the boy out for the second round. The kid rubbed in, crashed a mean swing on the empty's chin and smacked him horizontal. "Why didn't you tell me that the first time?" he wanted to know after the referee had counted ten over the prone fox.

SECONDS have always been men of mystery to us. We have often thought of trying out as one to see if we could get the viewpoint. The boys who swing the towel look awfully grumpy when their men takes a sock on the chin, or sometimes a smack in the ribs. There is a cynical disgust written plainly on their faces when their poor blunder is knocked on his ear. They simply cannot understand why the boxer who gets hit is hurt. "There was the colored scrapper who had been badly pummed. His nose was bleeding and his eyes were puffed. He was gasping for breath and in and get him the time, kid," advised the chap who was spotting him. "He can't hurt us," replied the dusky victim. "But, mistah, he push on hurt me. And he went away from there."

YOUTH is getting the rancorous laugh in the big leagues in this campaign. The glory and the glitter is going to the old timers. Eddie Collins, Cobb, Speaker, John Doherty, Cavanah, Bancroft, What and the rest of the old guard are having the laurels twisted in their grizzled locks. But the tide is carrying on, and when the averages are compiled in the new October days, the representatives of the youthful contingent will be right up with the leaders in the parade. Jim Gray of the Athletics and Lyons of the White Sox are two of the greatest American League pitchers. Yde and Krenner of the Pirates and Benton of the Braves, not to mention Johnny Cooney, are showing a merry brand of chucking in the National. Cuyler is now baseball's greatest all-around outfielder. Pie Traynor stands over the third basemen. Youngsters these, and many more, who are daily getting the results that will make things at least even when all the votes are cast.

International League
Baltimore 5, New York 3
Baltimore 12, Philadelphia 7
Buffalo 5, Reading 5
American Association
Cleveland 5, Minneapolis 4
St. Paul 12, Toledo 4
Cincinnati 1, Indianapolis 4
Louisville 11, Kansas City 5
Eastern League
Hartford 6, Worcester 5
Springfield 4, Albany 2
Worcester 5, Hartford 1 (10 innings)
Barnstable 5, New Haven 5

HAS EDGE IN EVERY ROUND

Kirby Stops Elliott in Second;
Madden Puts Lyons to Sleep in Fifth

By JACK CONWAY

George Cook, Australian heavyweight champion, scored a decisive victory over Joe Stoesel of New York in their ten round bout at the opening of the Cycle A. C. at the Revere Casino last night.

Cook had the best of the milking in each of the ten sessions. He hit Stoesel with about everything but the proverbial bucket. In the fourth round and again in the tenth stanza, Cook had Stoesel on the verge of a knockout.

It was another case of a ring David conquering a modern Goliath. Cook weighed only 184 pounds, while Stoesel scaled 250 pounds. The Australian forced the battling from the bell in the opening frame. During the first part of the contest, he directed his attack to the body. He then shifted to the jaw and Stoesel folded up like a tent.

FOURTH A THRILLER.
The big thrill of the tussle came in the fourth frame. Cook was hammering away at his big rival's body. Suddenly he shifted to the jaw. Cook went the right hand to the chin and Stoesel began to sag. His eyes became glassy, while his knees started whispering to the canvas.

The New Yorker fell into a clinch and held for dear life. Cook shook him off and let go a few more socks to the jaw. Stoesel was on the verge of a knockout at the bell. Cook continued to batter Stoesel around the ring for the rest of the tussle. The Australian champion looked particularly good in the tenth frame, when he opened up and rocked Stoesel with left and right hand socks to the head. Joe was bleeding freely from a big snag under his right eye all through the final frame.

KIRBY STOPS ELLIOTT.
Tom Kirby of Roxbury looked like a million dollars as he knocked out Jack Elliott, former international amateur champion, in two rounds. The Britisher was completely outclassed by Kirby. Elliott became the aggressor at the bell in the first round. He soon ran into one of Kirby's right hand jabs to the chin and kissed the canvas. He got up once only to be knocked down again. Kirby counted with two more knockdowns before the session ended.

Elliott bravely came out of his corner in the second frame only to be trounced over by another Kirby right hand smacker. After Tom dropped the Britisher, he fell two more times. Referee Goodman stopped the uneven tussle. Privately handed, Kirby has a fine chance to reach the pugilist heights. One of the big surprises of the show came when Jimmy Madden of Roxbury knocked out the famed Jack Lyons, Connecticut Cloutier, in five rounds. Madden took all of the fight out of Lyons in the first round when he scored with four knockdowns.

In the fifth frame, Madden knocked Lyons out on his feet. He then measured his opponent and sent him through the ropes with a right hander to the chin. Lyons was counted out while his feet rested on the lower rope.

The Cloutier was completely out. It was ten minutes before it was possible to remove him from the ring. He was then taken to the Massachusetts General Hospital for treatment.

Who Is He?

Jack Conway

Today's picture, No. 15, is of an American League player who is on a team now playing in Boston. Girls correctly identifying today's picture will be given not only a free grandstand seat at Fenway Park for themselves, but also a free ticket for their mother or other adult woman guardian.

Twenty-five tickets for girls and twenty-five tickets for mothers will be available each day of the contest. In the meanwhile the contest for boys continues as previously announced.

Contestants must paste the coupon on the back of the postcard and mail.

Boys' tickets may be called for from 11 a. m. to 3 p. m. each week day. Girls' tickets will be mailed them.

Each winning boy contestant, who finds his name in the paper, must bring a copy of that paper to this office.

Names of winners on today's photograph will appear in the late edition of Wednesday's paper.

BASE SUMMARY

American League

| Philadelphia | Win | Lost | P. C. |
|--------------|-----|------|-------|
| Pittsburgh   | 49  | 37   | .569  |
| New York     | 47  | 39   | .549  |
| St. Louis    | 46  | 40   | .538  |
| Cleveland    | 45  | 41   | .524  |
| Baltimore    | 44  | 42   | .512  |
| Washington   | 43  | 43   | .500  |
| Chicago      | 42  | 44   | .488  |
| Detroit      | 41  | 45   | .476  |
| Indianapolis | 40  | 46   | .464  |

National League

| Pittsburgh   | Win | Lost | P. C. |
|--------------|-----|------|-------|
| New York     | 48  | 38   | .560  |
| St. Louis    | 47  | 39   | .549  |
| Cleveland    | 46  | 40   | .538  |
| Baltimore    | 45  | 41   | .524  |
| Washington   | 44  | 42   | .512  |
| Chicago      | 43  | 43   | .500  |
| Detroit      | 42  | 44   | .488  |
| Indianapolis | 41  | 45   | .476  |
| Philadelphia | 40  | 46   | .464  |

Twilight League

| Boston       | Win | Lost | P. C. |
|--------------|-----|------|-------|
| New York     | 14  | 2    | .875  |
| St. Louis    | 13  | 10   | .569  |
| Cleveland    | 12  | 10   | .549  |
| Baltimore    | 11  | 11   | .500  |
| Washington   | 10  | 12   | .455  |
| Chicago      | 9   | 13   | .413  |
| Detroit      | 8   | 14   | .364  |
| Indianapolis | 7   | 15   | .318  |
| Philadelphia | 6   | 16   | .273  |

Table of Runs

Day's High-Low Scores

| AMERICAN LEAGUE | Monday High | Monday Low |
|-----------------|-------------|------------|
| Philadelphia    | 10          | 2          |
| Pittsburgh      | 10          | 2          |
| New York        | 10          | 2          |
| St. Louis       | 10          | 2          |
| Cleveland       | 10          | 2          |
| Baltimore       | 10          | 2          |
| Washington      | 10          | 2          |
| Chicago         | 10          | 2          |
| Detroit         | 10          | 2          |
| Indianapolis    | 10          | 2          |

NATIONAL LEAGUE

| Monday High  | Monday Low |
|--------------|------------|
| Philadelphia | 10         |
| Pittsburgh   | 10         |
| New York     | 10         |
| St. Louis    | 10         |
| Cleveland    | 10         |
| Baltimore    | 10         |
| Washington   | 10         |
| Chicago      | 10         |
| Detroit      | 10         |
| Indianapolis | 10         |

"They satisfy" is no mere catch phrase—it's a taste-description of Chesterfields

SUCH POPULARITY MUST BE DESERVED

LIBERTY & NORTON TOBACCO CO.

O'DONNELL SEES BIG YEAR AHEAD FOR PURPLE

"Your place is ours if you need it"
BERNARD M. WOLF
210-222 WASHINGTON STREET
Men's Clothing
Men's Furnishings
Boys' Clothing

HIM GO!

ACCURACY

EREST

|                        |                 |
|------------------------|-----------------|
| O'Neill Silver .....   | Horse Ra        |
| Vincent Richards ..... | Te              |
| Ford C. Frick .....    | Comm            |
| George W. Grimm .....  | Yach            |
| Joe Cashman .....      | Twilight Bas    |
| Fred C. Lane .....     | School B        |
| Edward Dondere .....   | T               |
| Gus Daly .....         | Light Harness T |

Incidentally, another Myles T. Sweeney serial will begin on the pages of TOMORROW. Plenty of fans have said they like his work. The new serial is entitled: "Nat Burlap; or The Tragic Story of a Farmer Who Waited Too Long."

REAL CHAMPIONSHIP BY BOXERS AT LAST

Atlantic City, N. J., Aug. 11 (U. P.) —Harry Greb, world's middleweight champion, today won the title by knocking out...

Neither Greb nor Terris will receive any compensation for Both turned down promising prospects since signing to appear in the charity event. Grebb met Pat Walsh, of Kansas City, a ten-round bout and has promised to come in at 160 pounds put his title at stake. Terris will fight Joe Mandell, of Philadelphia, in an eight-round bout.

Babe Ruth, of Philadelphia, who in his last bout held Mike Balles world's junior lightweight champion to a draw, will also donate his

So far as is known this is the end time in this age of high modern pugilism that a ring champion has fought without pay. Other time was when Pancho V. was flyweight champion of the world fought Frankie Murray, of Philadelphia, here last year.

250-MILE AUTO RACE AT ALTOONA LABOR DAY

For Other Sports
See Pages 10-11

FOR ADVERTISING SALSMEN

step from the minor league one which many young men have aspired to.

e real ability as constructive preferably, know. how to ply.
 contain the fullest details strictest confidence.
 ifton, Mass.

CELESTIAL BUSINESS PAGE

By Minor Glyn

A Gripping Romance—Newest and Best Novel by the Author of "Three Weeks"

Continued from Page 9

turned into dismay. There was no occasion for again showing the submission Madame de Jamon had made to her. Evidently what was called marriage was a thing of short duration in the life of the two. Hubert, however, was not of her. They met at meals, and talked with grave restraint before the servants. Between meals they met in places of interest in the neighborhood, or Hubert dined at the house where he was staying. He had learned that it contained her husband's own private rooms. She had seen him through the open window writing at a table littered with papers when she ventured beyond the lawn and roamed to the side of the house, and he had looked at her before he could suppress it, a frown had gathered on his brow.

Vanessa never turned the corner of the terrace after this. Every day she grew more in love with him. Lovelock had not been particularly nice to Eloise, she remembered that, but she was sure that she was in that case.

Hubert's "Gloves" could the Duchess of Lincolnwood be the Duchess of Hubert?

Hideous Sense of Self Contempt

Lord St. Austel had recovered from all feeling of strain and nervousness now. The girl was a nobody who was no trouble to him. He seldom looked at her, and never felt the slightest interest in anything she said or did. He remembered the memory of the wedding night of him a hideous sense of self contempt and degradation filled him. A storm could have had no magnetism to draw a man with under such circumstances.

By the time they reached the London House, Vanessa was perfectly miserable. Marriage meant nothing at all then—nothing the nobility—nothing at all but one thing—nothing that was a confusion of duty and pain and wretchedness.

Mr. Benjamin Levy had calculated in too general a fashion as to a particular man's nature, however, when he decided upon Lord St. Austel as a son-in-law. He had not believed any male creature could own so exclusively beautiful a young woman as Vanessa, and not succumb to her charms as a boy.

Vanessa Too Proud to Tell Sorrows

Vanessa was much too proud and too sensitive to confide in anyone—so that she was not her father's confidante on the day of her marriage. In London she was as affectionate to him as she had ever been to her mother. The ground reason for this was that she was too proud to tell her sorrows.

Women's Specialties

A Widely Known Diploma

Woman of a well-known position. Her expert instruction. Her course. Day or evening. Easy terms. You are invited to visit and inspect the latest equipment used by the profession.

For Booklet See List

The Mild Academy of Hair and Beauty Culture
482 Boylston Street Boston, Mass.

CLOSE FIT HAIR NET
For Sale Everywhere
2 for 25c

SWISS WATCH REPAIRING and Jewellery. Orders filled. Guaranteed.
Specialties.
THOMAS J. HIGAN
435 Washington St. Bk. 637

Latest From Paris

By Beatrice Fairfax

Who would a Paris Fashion in the Writing World as an Authority on Problems of Love.

DOROTHY was heartbroken. Also she was ill.

It was a matter of Mother to appear all her fun, object to her good time and try to make her over into a wife.

It all came about because of Dorothy's going to the office.

Her first plan was to go to the office with her mother.

But on the way to the office she saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

She saw the mother with her arm around her.

SUMMER LOVE SNARES THE RED LACQUER CASE

By Patricia Wentworth

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

She stood with the sun in her face and looked at the book. The book was a red lacquer case.

ROMANTIC HUSBAND

A Sequel to "Ways of a Husband"

By Anne Lisle

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

She looked at the clock. It was ten o'clock. She was alone.

CORRECT MANNERS

By Mrs. Cornelius Beckman

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

FRESH AIR AND BEAUTY

By Maria Jeritta

Prima Donna of the Metropolitan Opera Company and One of the Most Beautiful Women of the Day

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

As easy as breathing—how easy it is to get fresh air and beauty.

HOUSEWEAR DRILLS

By Mrs. Cornelius Beckman

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DEAR MRS. BECKMAN: I am writing to you about the correct manners.

DO YOU KNOW THAT

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

The first white woman to enter the forbidden city of Paris.

PERSONAL STATIONERY

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

200 REPLY SLIPS PRINTED 35c

FADED?

Restore Color to Faded Finery

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

FADED color is no reason for discarding your finery. For just a few minutes in the day you can restore the color to your faded finery. It is so simple to use.

Like a brisk sea breeze - that green olive flavor

ON AN all-day sail, or a trip to the beach, take a bottle of green olives. Nobody wants an elaborate lunch—something to hit the spot. Green olives and a sandwich—green olives with cold meat—green olives with a salad. How refreshing that olive flavor! How inviting, tempting—appetizing! Green olives—stuffed or plain—get them at your grocer's.

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

AMERICAN IMPORTERS OF SPICES, 200 Fifth Avenue, New York City

Tintex

TINTS AS YOU DINE

Tintex is the color you need for your dining room. It is so simple to use.

Tintex is the color you need for your dining room. It is so simple to use.

Tintex is the color you need for your dining room. It is so simple to use.

Tintex is the color you need for your dining room. It is so simple to use.

FINANCE

By B. C. Forbes
In the South, Aug. 11.—Georgia is going ahead faster than some States that make much more noise. I have already told, a million-dollar effort is to be used to draw attention, draw capital, draw industries, draw population and draw tourists to this attractive State.

President Downs of the Central Georgia Railway thus pictures Georgia's phenomenal growth industrially:

"Georgians have realized that balanced development between agriculture and industry is the best assurance of prosperity. Perhaps the most striking phase of industrial development in the State has been the upward trend of the textile industry. From 1900 to 1924 the number of active spindles more than doubled. There were 815,545 in 1900 and 7,751,480 in 1924. Textile plants in Georgia operated 96 per cent of their spindles last May, as compared with 79 per cent in New England and 87 per cent in the whole United States."

"The Central of Georgia serves very heart of Georgia and Alabama with 1,920 miles of line. The peace and prosperity of this territory are reflected in the revenue tonnage of the road; IN THE PAST TEN YEARS IT HAS INCREASED PER CENT."

NEW HIGH IS SET BY WESTON ELECTRIC

Weston Electrical Instrument Corporation stock, Boston and New York, has sold up to a new high, according to active demand. Carlings of Weston for first six months of 1925 follows: After tax for first quarter, $165,964; second-quarter, $177,474; third-quarter, $181,000. The shares are entitled to share equally with common stock after a share has been paid on the latter. On this basis earnings for the second quarter were equivalent to 10.5 cents per share, or 75 cents per share on the common. For the six months earnings were equivalent to $1.96 a share on the Class A or $1.41 a share on the common. As of June 30, 1925, the company had a net of $2,171,354 and current liabilities of $166,709, making working capital $2,004,645. Current assets included $90,885. Cash and marketable securities totaled $57,782. The company has since then reduced $150,000 since first of year and now stands at $550,000.

MACHINERY SALES AT SATISFACTORY LEVEL

New York, Aug. 11.—With the first half of the month over, estimates place the volume of machine tool business as on a par with the same period in July. Inquiry continues fairly active, American Machinery reports, and dealers and agents are optimistic over the prospects for a profitable Summer trade. A feature in the present market is the fact that price competition has become less important. New England reports better con-

MIRROR OF BIG

[illegible]

Boston Stocks

[illegible]

NEW YORK STOCKS

[illegible]

IMPROVEMENT IN BUSINESS IS FORECAST

By FRANK H. MELOON,

Financial Editor.
Treasurer and General Manager
David Stern of the National Can Company, Locust street, Boston, tells me: "While just at present business on the whole is not very lively, seasonably so, we have every reason to believe that within the next very few weeks there will be a very marked improvement."

"So far this year our business has shown a very handsome increase and from expectations of can consumers expect that the second half of the year will be even better than the first half. We are perhaps in better position to observe conditions generally as we serve so many varied industries," adds Mr. Stern.

Judge Frederic H. Chase, who sat as master in the equity suit brought by L. Sherman Adams against the Eastern Massachusetts Street Railway seeking to compel the road to pay dividends on its common stock, sailed for Europe Sunday. Master's report in this case is not now expected until Judge Chase's return.

$45,000 Worth of Lots SOLD 1ST DAY

To Happy Crowds in Spite of Rain and Glowering Skies DARKNESS ALONE STOPS HUGE SALE OF ALL-YEAR CAMP SITES AT

LOST $75 $15 DOWN
FOR and
$1 per WEEK

LAKE

IN THE FINGER LAKES, ORTON, MASS.

Discovered and Offered Exclusively to Readers of
The BOSTON AMERICAN and BOSTON ADVERTISER

THOUSANDS ARE HERE FOR Huge Crowds at Lost Lake Sunday

WHAT YOU GET FOR

LOST LAKE

Lost Lake, favorite hunting grounds of the Weymouth Indians 100 hundred years ago, is a clear mirror of virgin landscape set in the pine and birch high above Gros-

The CLUBHOUSE

On a high open knoll in the center of the property, overlooking Lost Lake and the surrounding pines, a natural park rivaling its location in New England has been set aside for property owners

$75

LOST LAKE BY MOTOR

|                    |          |
|--------------------|----------|
| From Boston, Mass. | 30 Miles |
| Lowell             | 11 Miles |
| Lawrence           | 22 Miles |
| Fitchburg          | 19 Miles |
| Worcester          | 25 Miles |

Long Island Sound. This is the title of the book by the author, which is a collection of stories and poems. The book is published by the author, and is available for purchase. The book is a collection of stories and poems, and is available for purchase. The book is a collection of stories and poems, and is available for purchase.

QUICK ACTION COUNTS NOW!
Every minute you delay means disappointment and loss later. Thousands of dollars worth of lots were sold last Sunday, but there are still many choice lots left. THINK OF IT! $75; $15 down and only $1 a week. No more than 5 lots to any individual, supply fresh green, butter and milk.

only one coupon to be used in the purchase of each lot. SAVE the COUPON, and if you can't visit the property today, come to the office any day or evening this week, or send a friend to represent a group of neighbors to the PUBLICITY MANAGER of LOST

Please give me full information concerning LOST LAKE, without obligation on my part, as soon as possible.

Name _____
Address _____

LAKE, 91 Summer Street, Boston
TEAR OFF AND MAIL OR BRING WITH YOU

LOST LAKE
PUBLICITY OFFICE
91-93-95 Summer Street

Boston area map showing locations: Boston, Woburn, Lynn, Salem, Andover, Haverhill, Lowell, Melrose, North Andover, Amesbury, Manchester, Nashua, Concord, Merrimack, Rockport, Gloucester, Nahant, Lynnfield, Danvers, Chelmsford, Haverhill, Keene, New Bedford, Taunton, Fall River, Duxbury, Scituate, Sandwich, Bourne, Wareham, Mattapoisett, Falmouth, Hyannis, Nantucket, Martha's Vineyard, Cape Cod.

YOU Open Evenings
Phone: BACH

0219
0217
0216
0215
0214

Portland
Newport - Comprehensive Music's Home Store

[illegible]

|                   |      |      |     |                       |      |      |     |                                       |
|-------------------|------|------|-----|-----------------------|------|------|-----|---------------------------------------|
| Wiley Edson, 122  | 128  | 135  | 145 | Waterloo G. O. 21%    | 21%  | 21%  | 22  | that automobile travel in picking up. |
| Wiley M. Rn 52%   | 62%  | 62%  | 62% | Timken R. B. 43%      | 43%  | 43%  | 43% | ***                                   |
| Bute & Rn. 10%    | 10%  | 10%  | 10% | Tobacco Prod 89%      | 89%  | 89%  | 89  | "Eddie" Mahan of Harvard fol-         |
| Call Packing 114% | 115% | 118% | 114 | Tro Prod A. 103%      | 103% | 103% | 103 | lled his education, known more for-   |
| Wagon & Aron 42%  | 42%  | 42%  | 42  | Union 100%            | 100% | 100% | 100 | mally as "Eddie," it is an asso-      |
| Call 2%           | 2%   | 2%   | 2   | U. of Cal. 25%        | 25%  | 25%  | 25  | ciated with Richardson. His           |
| Call Zinc Lead 2% | 2%   | 2%   | 2   | Union Pac. 141%       | 141  | 141  | 141 | after being connected with            |
| Can. Pacific, 142 | 142  | 142  | 142 | U. of Alloy Steel 21% | 21   | 21   | 21  | Stigginson & Co. and White, Wold      |
| Can Leather. 18   | 18   | 18   | 17% | U. Sugar Sta. 20%     | 20%  | 20%  | 20% | & Co.                                 |

[illegible][illegible]

|                   |      |      |      |      |
|-------------------|------|------|------|------|
| Textiles, %       | 3%   | 3%   | 31%  | 3%   |
| Coal Canl.        | 78%  | 78%  | 78%  | 78%  |
| Wool              | 100% | 100% | 100% | 100% |
| Car. Prods.       | 33%  | 33%  | 33%  | 33%  |
| Cuddly Park       | 99%  | 99%  | 99%  | 100% |
| Crucible Steel    | 72%  | 72%  | 72%  | 72%  |
| Cas. Cane pf.     | 47%  | 47%  | 47%  | 47%  |
| Cuban Am.         | 75%  | 75%  | 75%  | 75%  |
| DuPont Chem.      | 42%  | 42%  | 41%  | 41%  |
| Davison D. N. 144 | 145% | 145% | 139% | 139% | products being sold at satisfactory prices. In England negotiations have been completed for the erection of a plant at the mouth of a large colony.

White R. rights of 46% 46% 47%

Woolworths
"Frederick"
"R. R. C."

Negotiations are now in progress with several large public utility companies for new equipment, and closing of contracts may be announced shortly.

BOSTON & ALBANY HAS

[illegible][illegible][illegible]

|                  |     |     |     |     |                                                             |
|------------------|-----|-----|-----|-----|-------------------------------------------------------------|
| Hudson Motor     | 63% | 60% | 62% | 63  | amounted to 20,771 tons, a drop of 2,135 tons in the month. |
| Hyundai Motor    | 18  | 18  | 18  | 18  |                                                             |
| Isuzu Motors     | 11  | 10  | 10  | 10  |                                                             |
| Kia Motors Corp. | 11  | 10  | 10  | 10  |                                                             |
| Inf. Agr. Corp.  | 66  | 66  | 66  | 66  |                                                             |
| Inf. Cent. Comm. | 66  | 66  | 66  | 66  |                                                             |
| Inf. Cent. Eng.  | 48  | 47  | 48  | 48  |                                                             |
| Inf. Harvester   | 114 | 114 | 114 | 114 |                                                             |
| Inf. Harvester   | 114 | 114 | 114 | 114 |                                                             |
| Inf. Nickel      | 31  | 31  | 31  | 31  |                                                             |
| Jordan Motor     | 36  | 36  | 36  | 36  |                                                             |

|                      |     |     |     |                                      |
|----------------------|-----|-----|-----|--------------------------------------|
| Kelly Springfield 18 | 18% | 18% | 18% | 375,000 bushels.                     |
| Kennecott Corp 64    | 64% | 64% | 64% | CRANFORD Worsteds Mills, Bristol,    |
| Liggett 20           | 20% | 20% | 20% | R.I., cut wages 10 per cent.         |
| Loews Inc. 32        | 32% | 32% | 32% | ROPER, C. H. CUT reports net         |
| Low Inc. ... 7%      | 7%  | 7%  | 7%  | income of $1,061,983 in six months, |
| Lorillard & Co 84    | 84% | 84% | 84% | adding $21,528 in first half of     |
| Louisville 50        | 50% | 50% | 50% | 1934.                                |
| Louisiana ... 18%    | 18% | 18% | 18% | RAY MOTORS has outlook more          |
| Louisiana ... 42%    | 42% | 42% | 42% | favorable than over, says Presi-     |
| Macmillan Inc 97     | 97% | 97% | 97% | dent.                                |

|               |     |     |     |     |     |     |
|---------------|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|-----|
| Manhat Street | 25% | 25% | 25% | 25% | 25% | 25% |
| Marcello Oil  | 22% | 22% | 22% | 22% | 22% | 22% |
| Marland Oil   | 4%  | 4%  | 4%  | 4%  | 4%  | 4%  |
| Mayfield      | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% |
| Mc Beards     | 0   | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% |
| Media City    | 0   | 0   | 0   | 0   | 0   | 0   |
| M K & Tex.    | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% |
| M K & P. ex.  | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% | 18% |
| Mc Field      | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% | 12% |
| Montana, Tex. | 14% | 14% | 14% | 14% | 14% | 14% |

|                    |     |     |      |      |  |
|--------------------|-----|-----|------|------|--|
| Monterey Ward, 58  | 0   | 8   | 89%  | 65%  |  |
| Mother Lode, 9     | 0   | 8   | 8    |      |  |
| Nash Motors, 418   | 418 | 418 | 100% | 100% |  |
| Nash Sales, 28     | 28  | 28  | 100% | 100% |  |
| Nash Truck, 154    | 154 | 154 | 100% | 100% |  |
| NT Air Brake, 60   | 60  | 60  | 100% | 100% |  |
| NTYTRAL 1 pf 05    | 05  | 05  | 100% | 100% |  |
| NT NH & H, 84      | 84  | 84  | 100% | 100% |  |
| NT NH & H, 84      | 84  | 84  | 100% | 100% |  |
| Norfolk Power, 928 | 928 | 928 | 100% | 100% |  |

dividend on common was paid June 15, 1924.

ILLINOIS Cement in first seven months of 1924, averaged 4,658 cars against 31,273 a year ago.

MEXICAN REBARBO OIL for the quarter ending June 30 reports net profit of $1,547, against net profit of $1,698-61 in June quarter of 1924.

NEWPORT, VT. BONDS AWARDED IN BOSTON

Newport, Vt., has sold to Haines & Co., Inc., at $103.95, $900,000 4 1/2 per cent school bonds, dated July 1 and payable July 1, 1946. Other bidders were: Hornblower & Weeks, $100,000; H. H. Cushman, $100,000; Merrill, O'Brien & Co., $100,000.

[illegible]

|                 |        |        |        |       |
|-----------------|--------|--------|--------|-------|
| Vena and Oil.   | 1 1/4  | 1 1/4  | 1 1/4  | 1 1/4 |
| Phillips Petrol | 29 1/2 | 29 1/2 | 29 1/2 | 40    |
| Philip Morris.  | 2 1/4  | 2 1/4  | 2 1/4  | 2 1/4 |
| Placer Assoc.   | 2 1/2  | 2 1/2  | 2 1/2  | 2 1/2 |

